2019 AQR Insight Award Call for Papers

September 3, 2018

AQR Capital Management, LLC ("AQR") is now accepting submissions for the eighth annual AQR Insight Award.

The AQR Insight Award recognizes and rewards exceptional academic working papers that offer original, intelligent approaches to practical issues in the investment world. Up to three papers share a $100,000 annual prize.

Winners are chosen by the AQR Insight Award Committee, a panel of senior members of the firm, many of whom are leading academic finance experts from top universities.

AQR will consider papers on any investment-related topic as long as they deliver clear, significant insights. The deadline for entries is November 1, 2018 and papers must not be published before that date. Finalists will be invited to present their research at AQR in May, and winners will be announced in June 2019.

The AQR Insight Award counts many esteemed academics among its recipients. In addition, since the award's inception in 2012, 26 of the 30 finalist papers* have been published in one of the following economics or finance journals: Journal of Finance, Journal of Financial Economics, Review of Financial Studies, American Economic Review, Journal of Political Economy, and Quarterly Journal of Economics.
